- provide all the exhibition texts (captions and general texts);
- the participation of the curator to the installation and to the opening days of the Festival, being part of Open Panoràmic jury;

- provide a slideshow of Giovane Fotografia Italiana 2019 edition to be projected during the Festival;
- promote the exhibition and the Panoràmic Festival 2019 program through all the communication tools of the Cultural Department of the Municipality (digital and press).

Article 3: Duty of the Festival Panoràmic

Panoràmic agrees to:

- insert the exhibition Le cose che si vedono in cielo curated by Ilaria Campioli in the general program of the Festival considering the connection of the theme of this year's edition;
- provide an adequate exhibition space at Roca Umbert - Fabrica de les Arts (Granollers) for the period of the exhibition (from 17th to 27th October 2019);
- pay the costs for the transport of the 41 books and related installation materials (Italy / Spain / Italy);
- take in charge of the construction and painting of the 12 tables designed by the Municipality (58 linear metres) used for the installation of the 60 photobooks involved in the exhibition and 16 wood panels (10x27x27 cm);
- print the 16 photos (27x27 cm) provided by the curator;
- provide 15 photobooks selected by the curator that will update the exhibition concept in the occasion of the new presentation at Panoramic Festival;
- supervise the exhibition, according to the timetable established for the Panoràmic Festival exhibitions;
- take in charge for the internal communication of the exhibition;
- host a representative of the Municipality during the installation and the opening days of the Festival (October 14th-19th, 2019) by covering travel, board and lodging expenses;
- host Giovane Fotografia Italiana slideshow in the 2019 edition of Panoràmic with an information board about the project and the artists involved;
- presents the logos of the Municipality of Reggio Emilia and Giovane Fotografia Italiana on the following communication media supports: press kit, website, social media and exhibition panel;
- provides all the exhibition texts translations.
